The Revere Beach Sand Sculpting Festival!

The International Sand Sculpting Festival is back in Boston for its 12th year, and these aren't your average sand castles we're talking about. You won't find any plastic pails and shovels here, but you will find 15 of the most talented sand sculptors in the world. From July 24th - 26th come down to Revere Beach to watch the masters in action. Along with the amazing sand art, there will be live entertainment, gourmet food trucks, children's sand sculpting lessons and fireworks! Best of all, the event is FREE and open to the public!
